

Puyallup Herald 12/30/09

SSD presents early learning workshop

The Sumner School District is hosting a free workshop for childcare providers, teachers, parents and any community members who work with children from birth to 8 years old, at 5 p.m. Jan. 26 at Daffodil Valley Elementary, 1509 Valley Ave. The workshop will feature information, resources and activities to enhance learning experiences for young children and this year's workshop focuses on math.

Dinner will be provided.

This free evening event is filled with information resources and activities to enhance learning experiences for young children. The workshop is designed for those who work with children ages birth-to-eight, including childcare providers, preschool teachers, primary teachers, parents, grandparents, and community members. This year's workshop will focus on math. Dinner will be provided. STARS credits and clock hours will be

Courier Herald 12/23/09

Briefs

Early Learning winter workshop focusing on math

The Early Learning Linkages winter workshop is Jan. 26 at Daffodil Valley Elementary School, 1509 Valley Ave. in Sumner.

This year's workshop will focus on math.

The event, which begins at 5 p.m. with a dinner and a resource table, is filled with information and activities to enhance learning experiences for young children.

The 6 p.m. workshop is designed for those who work with children ages birth to 8, including childcare providers, preschool teachers, primary teachers, parents, grandparents and community members.

STARS credits and clock hours will be offered.

To register, call Early Learning Coordinator

Courier Herald
12/23/09

Workshop in math planned

The Early Learning Linkages winter workshop is Jan. 26 at Daffodil Valley Elementary School, 1509 Valley Ave. in Sumner.

This year's workshop will focus on math.

The event, which begins at 5 p.m. with a dinner and a resource table, is filled with information and activities to enhance learning experiences for young children.

The 6 p.m. workshop is designed for those who work with children ages birth to 8, including childcare providers, preschool teachers, primary teachers, parents, grandparents and community members.

To register, call Early Learning Coordinator