

Parade Time

Despite rainy conditions, the annual Sumner High School homecoming parade marched down Main Street Friday. The street was filled with bands, cheerleaders, royalty, a mascot, floats and more. Children along the route were treated as participants passed out candies.

Photos by Dannie Oliveaux

To view or buy photos got to www.blscourierherald.com

